RING THAT BELL! Rensselaer Police Department has challenged the Rensselaer Fire Department to a "ring off." On December 6, 2017 Rensselaer Police Officers and family are going to ring the Salvation Army bell outside Walmart. Proceeds will go to assisting local persons in need.

On December 8, 2017 Rensselaer Fire Department members are going to ring the bell. The department that can get the most donations will win a huge trophy. "This is one way our departments can give back to our community and still make it a little competition," said Chief Jeff Phillips.

All criminal defendants are innocent until, and unless proven guilty in a court of law.
