

Holiday Tree Trail

Back by popular demand is another festive competition in our community. Organizations, groups and businesses alike are encouraged to enter.

Here are the details:

- 1) Decorate a tree to be displayed in Potawatomi Park.
- 2) Lights can be used as there is power available at Potawatomi Park.
- 3) All participants should provide their own tree, decorations, mounting device/stand and extension cord if needed.
- 4) The registration fee is $25. Proceeds will go to future Rensselaer Parks Department programs/activities. (Checks should be made payable to "Rensselaer Parks")
- 5) Participants should also place a container of some sort under the tree to hold the food items collected.
- 6) Send completed forms to: Rensselaer Parks Program Director, Heather Hall
508 N. Cullen Street, Rensselaer, IN 47978

December 7, at 4 p.m. ~

Community tree lighting ceremony at Potawatomi Park lighting
Holiday Tree Trail, kicking off Rensselaer Parks, Frosty Fest
(which includes a live Nativity, tasty treats, visits with Santa, caroling, etc. More details are forthcoming.....)

The public will have the opportunity to judge the trees from 4-6 p.m. on Dec. 7 to select the People's Choice Awards by placing a non-perishable food item under the tree of their choice. (This will count as the vote. 1 food item= 1 vote) All food collected will be donated to the Good Samaritan Food Pantry to assist those in need this holiday season.
